Seventeen To Try For Chamber Seats

Seventeen nominees were listed for nine vacancies on the board of directors of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce Tuesday.

Ballots will go out this week with a deadline of Feb. 17. Winners will be announced at the March board meeting, Dr. Sam Smith, president, said.

Those listed as candidates include: Steve Tallion, apartment manager; Roger Verbeist, travel bureau; Cliff Clark, television sales; Gary Conrad, mortician; Wally Knutson, realtor; Eddie Morgan, market manager; Dr. Don Johnson, dentist; Dr. Calvin Nicholl, optometrist; Bill Vandenberg, dry cleaner; Keith Durbin, loan official; Bill Wardwell, telephone company employee; Lyle Strumbach, CPA; Dr. George Brassington, medical doctor; Bob Russell, plumbing sales; B. C. Hesser, realtor; Bob Howell, tax specialist; and Frenchy Faucher, postmaster.

Officers will be elected by the board from members of the new board.

In other business, the board passed a resolution opposing inventory tax; voted to paint the flag poles in the plaza; named Jim Dorman, Al Wood and Bob Dryden to a business district street sweeper committee, and welcomed two

Lemon Grove Leads In Building Permits

Lemon Grove led the county in total value of building permits in January, the County Building Inspection Department reported.

Lemon Grove's $446,000 included permits for 42 multiple dwelling units, 32 of the units will be at Campo and Palm where Big Bear market is being built. 12 units are being built by Dr. D. G. Johnson adjacent his dental offices on Main st.

Escondido, with $211,500 in building permits was second, and Encinitas, with $184,100, was third.

Subversive Speakers Not Wanted On Campus Says Trustee Dryden

Junior College trustee Bob Dryden stood staunchly on his announced position of resisting communist and nazi speakers on the college campus, Friday at the Lemon Grove Men's club.

"Grossmont," said Dryden, "is a community college. It must reflect the attitudes of the people in the community who own it. It is my conviction that taxpayers in the Grossmont district are finding nothing useful in the utterances of those who advocate the overthrow of our government."

Dryden, together with trustees Rex Hall and Palmer Svalstad voted 3-2 to keep M.I. Laski, communist spokesman, off the campus last month. The order was disobeyed and Laski spoke. Stronger controls are being enforced as a result, Dryden said.

Dryden made a point that schools such as Berkeley, and other UC colleges, drawing students from all over the world, and supported by taxpayers from all over the state, were less responsive to the will of the people.

"In the Grossmont district the phone rings many times after I get home from a controversial trustees' meeting," he said, "The college here is by sufferance of the people who pay the bills. If they revolt, there would be no college."

The Men's Club will hear George Peranteau, english instructor at Grossmont College. Peranteau is the faculty sponsor of the Students for Academic Freedom, the group that sponsored the demonstration against the board's policy on Laski and other controversial speakers.

A TOUCH OF OLD MEXICO — Taco Bell, 8261 Broadway, Lemon Grove, will hold Grand Opening Saturday, Feb. 11, with festivities including giant searchlight, free sombreros, Freckles the Clown, a Marichi band, and free Pepsi beginning at 5:30 p.m. Mexican food, featured at Taco Bell includes tacos, chiliburgers, burritos, tostados, and frijoles. Taco Bell is owned by Ray Baksh and managed by Robert Arnaiz.

Boy Faces Shots If Dog Isn't Found

A boy bitten by a German shepherd dog Saturday afternoon at College Grove shopping center is searching for the dog's owner.

Douglas Collins, 12-year old son of Mrs. Shirley Collins of 6864 Richards st., will be forced to take a painful two-week series of anti-rabies shots unless the dog is found within a matter of hours.

He was bitten on the forearm by the dog which was on a leash. Two girls, wearing slacks and who were barefoot, had the dog.

If the dog has a current rabies tag or is found to be free of rabies, Douglas will not need the shots.

Higher Prices Seen As House Starts Trial

"There is little likelihood of any reversal in the continuing climb of construction and land prices indicates that now is the time for families needing homes to purchase," Hank Dieckhoff, President of the San Diego Board of Realtors, said.

"Contrary to the often exaggerated reports of tight money, home mortgage credit is available for qualified buyers in most areas from a variety of sources," he said.

With the passing months there may be fewer homes available, and prices may be higher. Vacancy rates are declining, and housing starts are at their lowest level in 20 years.

Van Deerlin Plumps For Post Office Raises

WASHINGTON — Legislation to give the nation's 400,000 letter carriers and postal clerks a long overdue 13 per cent pay raise was introduced in the House yesterday by Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin.

Van Deerlin's action was strongly endorsed by San Diego Branch 70 of the National Association of Letter Carriers. The local N.A.L.C. chapter has 800 members, including 700 carriers for the San Diego City Post Office.

Van Deerlin's measure would adjust the pay of carriers and distribution and window clerks by advancing them from Level 4 to Level 5 in the complex Postal Field Service salary schedule.

In addition, the first two steps in Level 5 would be eliminated, leaving only 10 steps in the level. This would mean that it would take postal clerks and carriers 15 years to reach the top of the level, instead of the present 21 years.

"I cannot accept the implication that it takes more than two decades to achieve top proficiency in this calling," Van Deerlin said.

The beginning annual salary for the carriers and clerks would rise from $5,331 to $6,079.

The legislation also would provide substantial increases for Post Office personnel in lower grades, including janitors, elevator operators, order fillers, guards, file clerks, typists, mail handlers and garagemen.

All would be moved up to the next level in the salary schedule, with the resulting increases averaging about 14 per cent.

Motor vehicle operators, who currently get the same pay as the clerks and carriers, would receive the same increases, under the Van Deerlin legislation.

"An efficient postal service is a vital part of the American economy," Van Deerlin said. "Postal compensation therefore should be attractive enough to recruit career-minded individuals while at the same time retaining experienced personnel."

Synanon Can't Help High Schools

It's as though Sunday school, motherhood, and dogs are being opposed when the integrity and purpose of Synanon is questioned. Particularly sensitive are members of the Synanon organization—as well they might be.

Synanon got its name when some junkie, with his tongue thickened by use of drugs of one kind or another, attempted to say "seminar". This cuteness has been carried on as part of the character of Synanon and perhaps it is one of the resentment-producing elements of the organization. But there are other conditions which keep resentment alive.

Synanon comes into focus at this time because supporters of the organization are proposing a Synanon facility on a 47-acre plot of land in El Cajon, adjacent Granite Hills high school.

Synanon spokesmen and members are sensitive to questioning because they know that chances of rehabilitation success among its membership are exceedingly small. A federal report, some five years ago, showed that less than one per cent of total number of addicts are rehabilitated.

That suggests that addicts, usually those young enough to have some energy left, may meet and live under a protection of a sort, with abstinence the advertised goal, but with the possibility of a cure almost non-existent.

Residents of houses of Synanon are both male and female. The aim is self-help. The residents police each other to determine whether the rules are being followed.

Whether this type of policing is effective is not known since supporters of the organization usually answer "what have you got that's better?"

Synanon has been accepted in San Diego county and other places in the nation. At many service club meetings Synanon speakers provide the program. Those attending the meeting appeared to hold these addict-speakers in awe, asking sympathetic questions as though they were royalty instead of law-breaking criminals. The crime, of course, is that of dope-taking.

A Synanon speaker will be honored next week at a meeting of the Lemon Grove Men's club.

Recently, a Synanon, claiming to be off drugs, became highly irritated when he was asked to what use proceeds from the sale of toilet articles was being put. He showed an irrational anger when his sales effort was rejected. This suggests that normal sales people earning family bread and butter, may be refused—but not Synanon salespeople.

Synanon people, in the past, have admitted that they are not normal. And they suggest that it might have been you—or me. They seem to see no possibility, in such a juxtaposition, that some of us might have come up as Rockefellers—rich, healthy and addiction-free.

The sympathetic and almost cloying point of view demanded by these former addicts, has probably helped, as much as anything, to encourage youngsters to accept drugs as a part of today's existence. The arrest of far too many students last week at Helix high school for drug use makes the point valid.

Synanon's request to establish a house adjacent to Granite Hills high school should be rejected—but not for the reasons that Grossmont and El Cajon City officials will offer.

Synanon should be refused the site because a Synanon house and a high school cannot co-exist. High school students, if police reports on high school drug use are correct, may lead the former addicts back to the dope "main-line."

Our weak position on drug addiction has created a Frankenstein. While Synanon itself is not responsible, the permissive aura philosophy surrounding its support has done nothing to stem the growing drug-taking menace.

Kerr Picked Up His Marbles

When Clark Kerr's resignation as president of the University of California was accepted with such alacrity last month, that many said he was fired. He, himself, says that he was CONCERNED COMMUNITY RESIDENTS — Left to right are Mrs. LeRoy Poole, Mrs. Agnes Osgood and Mrs. Oakley Hall, as they work on their 1,000th quilt for Project Concern. The group's efforts, inaugurated by Mrs. Agnes Osgood and several other local ladies, four years ago as a summer project, is now a large scale operation. It was the group's intention to make a 'few' quilts for the missionary doctor's needy people. Working in their homes, or in small circles, the ladies gathered material, cut, stitched, stuffed, pressed and quilted the yardage, and met monthly for 'tying' day. 'Tying' day is held at the Lemon Grove Congregational Church during the winter months and under a pecan tree in Mrs. Osgood's yard, when weather prevails. Transportation, the next step involved in the operation is accomplished with the assistance of helpful and interested husbands, and upon certain accumulation of finished items, the group assembles and packs the quilts in barrels for shipping. (see above rt. picture.) The quilts are then sent to various needy areas, with 585 to date having gone to Dr. Turpin in Hong Kong and Vietnam; yet, a special place for the Casa de Todos Orphanage in Tijuana, has been etched in the helpful hearts of the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley residents that participate in Project Concern. Shown in the packing picture left to right are LeRoy Poole, Mr. and Mrs. Oakley Hall, Mrs. Agnes Osgood, and Mrs. LeRoy Poole.

Read Hebrews 4:14-16
We have not a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sinning. (Hebrews 4:15, RSV)

A minister I know has to walk by aid of a pair of crutches at all times. When he goes into a sickroom in a home or a hospital, immediately the people feel a oneness with him. They know this is a man who feels for them not in words alone. He has been where they are. He can understand them.

The Son of God restricted Himself in becoming a human being. He knew hunger and weariness, loneliness and betrayal, trouble and pain. He was tempted and knew the full agony of temptation.

Therefore when we talk to Jesus Christ, we know that He understands us. He has been where we are. He understands the conditions of our lives and needs, and the needs of others for whom we pray. We can come to Him with confidence in any human situation, knowing that He understands and cares.

Prayer: Our Father, we thank Thee for Thy Son Jesus, who knows our weaknesses and our strength and loved us enough to give Himself for us, even while we were yet sinners. Forgive us and make us strong, for we come to Thee and offer our prayer in His name. Amen.

Thought for the day: I can pray with confidence because God understands.

"In these critical times in which we live," said Jones, "our spirituality must be strengthened if we are to supply to our faith endurance. We want to anchor our hope in Jehovah's promises of a better system of things on this earth," Jones concluded.

Also featured at the assembly will be the 3 p.m. Sunday showing of the film, "God Cannot Lie."

Here's a defensive driving tip from the San Diego County Traffic Safety Council: Heavy traffic moves so fast on today's streets and highways that it can't possibly stop suddenly. So pull well off onto the shoulder if you have to stop. If you leave even two wheels partly on the road—chances are that someone will rear end or sideswipe you.

Global Prayer Day Program Written by an Island Queen

The World Day of Prayer, an annual prayer service, observed world-wide, will be held locally this year at 10 a.m., Feb. 10 at the Lemon Grove Lutheran Church, Skyline at Alton Sts.
Queen Salote, of the Tonga Islands, wrote and prepared the World Day of Prayer program for 1967, a few months before her death. This year the theme of the day is "Of His Kingdom There Shall Be No End."
The first services of the day are held in the Tonga Islands in the South Pacific at the international date line and continue from that point around the world.
Many local churches are joining in the prayer effort, which is held annually under the auspices of the Homeland Council of Church Women, a chapter of the Church Women United, So. California—So. Nevada.
Area women participating in the program include: Mrs. R. Dale Moore, L.G. Congregational Church; Mrs. R. Gene Trent, Warner Memorial Evangelical United Brethren; Mrs. Leon C. Hoffman, Trinity Presbyterian Church, Spring Valley; Mrs. Donald H. Ketelsen, Lemon Grove Methodist Church; Mrs. Russell Ray, St. Philip's Episcopal Church; Mrs. Ralph H. Whitman, First Baptist Church, Spring Valley.
Chairman of the Day is Mrs. Eugene A. Anderson, Lemon Grove Lutheran Church.
The Rev. R. J. Berg, pastor of the L.G. Lutheran Church and the Rev. Ernest M. Fowler, of the L.G. Congregational Church will participate. Mrs. Berg will sing a solo.
According to Mrs. Donald H. Hess, president of the Homeland Council, donations will aid the American Indians; twelve colleges in Africa, India, Pakistan, Taiwan, and Korea; and the literacy program in Asia, Africa, and Latin America.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

by James Hardison

The word "cortar" (to cut) should be considered with some care. It can be used in "Yo corto la carne." (I cut the meat.) But when we say "Yo parto el pastel." (I cut the cake), we use the verb "partir" (to separate).

To say "They cut prices." (Rebajaron los precios.) the verb "rebajar" is used. In this case "to cut" also means "to reduce."

Stated simply, the use of "cortar" seems complicated when different words are used to identify a basic idea. However, if we think of the associated ideas related to this verb when we first learn it, "cortar" does not become that complicated. In Spanish a cake is "separated" instead of "cut" and prices are "reduced" instead of "cut."

These words appear in today's lesson. Read the expressions over and pronounce them by using the phonetic guide provided. Then you may also improve your pronunciation by practicing the words and expressions with the two minute automatic recording you will hear when you dial 276 2762 on your home telephone. Each word will be said separately and a pause provided for you to repeat aloud the words you hear. It is almost too easy. Try it.

IMPORTANT EXPRESSIONS

Say "Yo corto la carne." (yoh KOHR-toh lah KAH-neh) for "I cut the meat."
Say "El corta el jamon." (ehl KOHR-tah ehl HAH-mohn) for "He cuts the ham."

HOUSEHOLD EXPRESSIONS

Say "Yo parto el pastel." (yoh PAHR-toh ehl pahs-TEHL) for "I cut the cake."
Say "Parte usted el pan." (PAHR-teh oo-STEHD ehl pah-n) for "You cut the bread."

BUSINESS EXPRESSIONS

Say "Rebajaron precios." (reh-bah-HAH-ron PREH-see-ohs) for "They cut prices."
Say "Subieron sueldos." (soo-bee-EH-rohn soo-EHL-dohs) for "They increased wages."

The Dimmer View

Those who favored the separation, regardless of the method, hoped that the "casual" academic philosophy that grew during his regime would pass with him.

The philosophy was called "academic freedom" and it wasn't academic freedom at all. It was the idea that smart young punks and misguided teachers could take advantage of the freedom designed for normal folk. A freedom that does not include the public use of four-letter words; support of those who urge the overthrow of our government; demonstration against wars in which our sons, husbands, fathers and other loved ones are dying; sexual permissiveness, and the use of drugs on campus.

Kerr, who resigned once before, was unquestionably trying the new administration. Would this new governor prove a craven administrator, crawling cowardly away, his tail tucked beneath a flabby belly because of fear of the greatest lobby of all—the educators?

Kerr threatened to take his marbles and go home where there was a friendlier administration. It was a leadpipe cinch that Governor Brown would publicly invite him to stay on the job. Brown probably did not think of Kerr as indispensable so much as he was concerned about the uprising in the education establishment.

Governor Ronald Reagan showed a surprisingly stiff backbone when he rose to the occasion at once when Kerr tried the trick on him. Reagan and his regents said "good-bye."

Why did Kerr invite his separation and then publicly cry that he was ousted in an "essentially political" action? For that matter, why does he weep in public, as he did on nationwide television, that he was fired? Many persons lose their jobs, wealth, and health because of certain situations. Few shed tears publicly or blame others for their sorry fate.

Kerr cannot claim the same right as a politician such as Richard Nixon who made wild charges after his defeat at president. Kerr was not elected. He was paid a handsome salary to run the University of California so that the supporters of education would be satisfied and proud. If he failed, and was fired, what is he crying about?

If he is as concerned about the education industry as he professes to be, why doesn't he offer his experience and knowledge to aid in bettering the system?

Whether his services would be accepted or not is questionable but the gesture would advertise his sincerity.

Tax Tips

These tips were supplied by the California Society of Certified Public Accountants. They are presented here to aid you in preparing your personal Federal Income Tax returns.

Taxpayers who sold their homes last year may need more records and Federal tax returns than they did when they filed last year's income tax returns.

R. B. Short, Acting District Director of Internal Revenue for Southern California said that if a taxpayer has a gain or loss on the sale of property, he should have adequate records to substantiate the sale price, cost basis of the property and deductible expenses of the sale. Short noted that losses incurred on the sale of a personal residence, however, are not deductible.

The form to use for reporting gain or losses on property sales is Schedule D, which may be obtained by dropping a postcard to the District Director of Internal Revenue Service.

Short advised taxpayers who sold home or were involved in other property transactions to get an early start on their 1966 return. Property transactions can be complicated and it takes time to get records together, he said.

Taxpayers can get details on how to report property sales by requesting Document No. 5048, "Sales and Exchange of Assets," from their local IRS office. Addresses can be found in the telephone directory under U.S. Government, Treasury Department.

Married taxpayers residing in California, a community property state, may benefit from helpful information contained in a new Internal Revenue Service Publication, R. B. Short, Acting Internal Revenue Service District Director, announced the availability of the free pamphlet, Document No. 5192, to married taxpayers who are considering filing separate Federal Income Tax returns.

The distinctions between what is community property and income and what is separate property become important when a husband and wife want to identify and report these items separately.

Generally, each spouse must take into account half of the community income and deductions and all his separate income and deductions to determine the proper tax on separate returns. Each may claim only his own exemptions and deductions or half of deductions paid out of community funds. However, if a dependent is supported with community funds, or if each spouse contributed equally to the support of a dependent, either spouse may claim the full exemption of the dependent. An exemption may not be divided between taxpayers.

Taxpayers may want to figure their returns both jointly and separately in order to determine the method that produces a lower tax liability. Mr. Short said. An illustrated worksheet showing the different treatment of income and deductions of a husband and wife filing a joint return compared to filing separate return is contained in Document No. 5192.

This publication titled "Community Property" can be obtained by mail without charge from any local IRS office whose address can be found in the telephone directory under U.S. Government, Treasury Department.

A wife who was the dependent of another taxpayer or who files a separate Federal income tax return, cannot be claimed as an exemption by her husband, said R. B. Short, Acting District Director of the Internal Revenue Service.

A husband and wife may file a joint return even though one of them had no income or deductions for the year. If the wife had income, they may either file a joint or separate returns. Where the joint is filed, the income of both must be included in the return regardless of amount. If separate returns are filed (Continued on Page 6)

Measles Clinic to Vaccinate Area Children Sunday, Feb. 26

Registration forms for the End Measles in San Diego County vaccination clinics to be held later this month will be sent home from schools throughout the county in the next two weeks.

Vaccination clinics in this area will be held at Golden Ave. Auditorium, 7885 Golden Ave., Lemon Grove; and Bancroft School, 8805 Tyler St., Spring Valley. They will be open from noon to 4 p.m. on Sunday, Feb. 26 nly.

The clinics are sponsored by the San Diego County Medical Society and San Diego Department of Public Health in cooperation with other official and voluntary agencies.

Dr. Lawrence E. Reck, Medical Society representative, urged parents to save the registration forms their school children bring home and to fill them out now. He said that when the clinics are held, parents whose forms are already complete will have their children vaccinated immediately.

The registration forms are being sent home with children in kindergarten classes and the first four grades of elementary school.

Dr. J. B. Askew, director of public health, said parents of pre-school children with no children in school to bring registration forms home may obtain registration forms at any health center of the Department of Public Health throughout the county.

Children from one through nine years of age who have not had measles or measles vaccine may be vaccinated at the clinics. The health department estimates that there are 3,200 susceptible children in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area who should have the vaccine.

Dr. Reck pointed out that measles can be serious and said one out of every six children who have measles have some kind of complication such as an ear infection, pneumonia, deafness or brain damage.

He added that children who are vaccinated at the measles clinics are expected to be protected against the disease for life.

Parents will be requested to donate a dollar, or whatever amount they can afford, to help meet part of the cost of the vaccine. However, no child will be refused vaccine because of inability to pay.

All children going to the measles vaccination clinics must be accompanied by a parent or responsible adult over 21 years of age.

Helix High's Highland Notes

by Shauna McGregor

"Third down!" shouts the blue-eyed senior.

"Set!!" answers the "quarterback."

The ball is hiked and the senior girls are on their way to another touchdown.

So it goes as senior girls play football (a mild form, anyway) in their gym classes. Boy, what fun!

Elections for ASB officers are about to get underway at Helix. Petitions are available to those wishing to run for office and plans are being made for our Nominating Convention to be held Feb. 24. This is one of the big events of the year as related to student government. The convention is patterned after national conventions and is really something to see!

There aren't many schools who can boast their own radio stations. It seems that Helix has just that. Operated by 12 members of the radio club, station KRC (1570) is on the air from 7:30 to 7:45 in the morning with afternoon shows from 2:30 to 4:00. Three students, Mike Davis, Larry Young and Tom Reed serve as disc jockeys for the programs. Songs from the "Top 40" comprise most of the music presented and there are no breaks for news or advertising.

And so ends the Highland notes for this week.

Encanto Elementary Sets PTA Meeting

The Encanto Elementary School will hold its regular PTA meeting at 7:30 p.m., tonight in the school auditorium.

Mrs. Barney Watson, Honorary Life chairman, will present an Honorary Life Membership pin to an outstanding member of the community.

The third grade room mothers will serve refreshments.

Monterey Heights Slates PTA Meeting

The Monterey Heights PTA will hold its unit meeting at 7:30 p.m., Feb. 9, in the school cafeteria.

Cub Scout Den No. 6, Pack No. 399, under the leadership of Mrs. Augustin Varela, will give the flag presentation.

The program will include a film, "The Lively Art of Picture Books," and the presentation of an Honorary Life Membership. Mrs. Doris Susan is program chairman.

To The Outside World

by Kathy Powell

The turnover from first semester to the second has left faculty, administration, and student body suffering from battle fatigue. Counseling offices have been jammed with requests for anything from a change in classes to early graduation. Teachers fought the mass migration of students with their only weapon: absense notices. And students were confronted with the confusion of finding new classrooms. Presently, all is quiet on the front, but graduation approaches . . .

For all of those who were January graduates, Mount Miguel wishes you the best of luck and hopes to see you back for June graduation festivities.

Mount Miguel's rairer sex found themselves delightfully surprised by an unexpected all-girl assembly dealing with the women's role throughout history. A WAC modeling team exhibited various costumes from the days of early Egypt to the modern day woman in formal dress. Lori Durham set the mood with selections on the piano. The assembly's finale found M.M. girls with a renewed faith of their place in this world (if they ever lost that faith to begin with).

A few weeks ago, Mount Miguel was honored with the presence of Billy Mills, gold medalist from Tokyo, in the capacity of a ring salesman. At the request of student government, Mr. Mills consented to speak at the Mount Miguel nominating convention March 3.

And now a very short word to M.M.'s male population. The ASB holds dances for assorted reasons, but the most apparent is for enjoyment. This seems all well and good; however, anything but fun is accomplished when you form your little chat clusters. Just to make it interesting, how about a little participation at the next dance. You'd be surprised at the people you meet there.

Track Bids 'Shopped' High Bidder's Charges

Paul Carter, head of the San Diego County Turf Club this week charged there is "no evidence that the Fair Board has any intention of awarding the Del Mar lease to the high bidder (18.2%)." He pointed out the "San Diego County Turf Club's bid included debt retirement provisions of the new facilities—the very first item to be negotiated."

"The lease requirements were clear to us. We bid properly under the terms while others apparently misread or interpreted the lease conditions," he said.

"The bids are now being shopped. The Fair Board's 8-1 rejection of our original bid (for reasons not sufficient to throw out) according to the Department of General Services leads us to believe that we're invited to negotiate with a lock-in situation at Del Mar on February 13th."

"The Legislature has not only directed the Fair Board to award the San Diego Turf Club the lease but to negotiate with the San Diego County Turf Club only. As of this date the San Diego County Turf Club hasn't even been invited to next Monday's meeting. Yet I note the Del Mar Associates has already publicly announced plans for adding on to its original bid. It's all so cozy. The first stacked deck didn't work. The Board is reshuffling the same deck. They will try to stack it again Monday. However the people are beginning to catch on that 'hanky' and 'games' at Del Mar are hurting both the state and local community."

Carter urged San Diegans concerned over Del Mar to contact their representatives in Sacramento at once, both at the Assembly and Senate level.

"We hope an aroused San Diego Delegation will assist the Fair Board to honor a free and open state bid situation. The San Diego County Turf Club bid highest and meets all standards, criteria and conditions—so where's the lease?" Carter asked.

Other business to be conducted will be the election of 15 directors and the ratification of the board's selection of the corporation's independent auditors.

All stockholders are invited to attend the meeting, McDonald said, but pointed out that only stockholders of record as of March 6, will be entitled to vote.

The Internal Revenue Service today cautioned taxpayers to be on the alert for unscrupulous individuals who pose as either revenue officers or revenue agents to extort money on the pretense of satisfying unpaid taxes. All bona fide employees of the Internal Revenue Service who contact the public carry distinctive identification credentials.

If a person who claims to be an employee of the Internal Revenue Service approaches you and does not identify himself, you should request identification from him. If you still have doubts, contact the nearest Internal Revenue office as quickly as possible.

U.S. Savings Bonds may be purchased with your 1966 Federal income tax refund. Taxpayers due refunds can take them in Series E Bonds, Ralph B. Short, Acting District Director of Internal Revenue said.

Individual income tax forms—1040 and 1040A—provide a space for taxpayers to elect U.S. Savings Bonds for their income tax refunds.

"When a taxpayer elects to take his refund in Series E Bonds, he builds financial security for himself and his country," Short said. "Those who check the savings bond election on their tax return join millions of Americans who are investing in their country's future and their own."

Financial Statements

Explanation Ready

Many small businessmen intimidated by financial statements may look upon that "necessary evil" with a friendlier gaze as the result of a new Bank of America report, "Understanding Financial Statements".

"A well-prepared and thoroughly understood financial statement can play a vital role in the success of any business," the bank emphasizes.

The report, written in simple language, contains an illustrated digest of such terms as balance sheet, income statement, and reconciliation of net worth.

In emphasizing the importance of maintaining accurate records in planning the future of a business, the report points out that it isn't enough just to keep records; they must be understood.

This is particularly true in times of tight money. In fact, a thoughtfully prepared financial statement can be instrumental in obtaining a loan.

Copies of the report—the latest issue of the Small Business Reporter—may be obtained at local branches of Bank of America.

ENSIGN CROOKS

Coast Guard Ensign Donald C. Crooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Crooks of 7455 Tweed St., Lemon Grove, has received a commission in the U.S. Coast Guard after completing Officer Candidate School at the U.S. Coast Guard Reserve Training Center in Yorktown.

As a graduate from the 17-week school, Crooks is qualified to meet technical problems facing a junior officer in the Coast Guard, and more important, the special leadership aspects of an officer's life.

His courses of instruction included combat information control, communications, damage control, gunnery, navigation, seamanship and military drill.

Ens. Crooks attended California-Western University, San Diego.

State Regains $610,000

In Anti-Trust Suit

For Campfire Girls

California will receive $610,000 to distribute to cities, counties and agencies as the result of an anti-trust suit against manufacturers of metal library shelving.

Attorney General Thomas C. Lynch said the suite was filed against Sperry Rand Corporation of New York City, successor to Remington Rand, Inc., Art Metal, Inc. of Jamestown, New York, Globe-Wernicke Industries, Inc. of Toledo, Ohio, W. R. Ames Company of Milpitas, California, Estey Corporation of Red Bank, New Jersey, Hamilton Manufacturing Company of Two Rivers, Wisconsin, and Gray Manufacturing Co., Inc. of Tecumseh, Michigan, successor to Virginia Metal Products, Inc.

State agencies will receive $16,250; state colleges, $131,000; University of California, $225,160, and counties, $83,047. San Diego will get $4,660 and the S.D. Retirement Board will get $28,927.

The shelving firms were accused of conspiring to divide the market, allocate customers, and to refrain from competing with each other, in violation of antitrust laws.

The firms produce 95 percent of all metal library shelving sold in the U.S.

PRIVATE JOHNSON

Marine Private Glenn G. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene P. Johnson of 2741 Glebe Road, Lemon Grove, was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot here.

Johnson will now undergo about three weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

The intensified Marine recruit training emphasizes rigid physical conditioning and survival techniques, both at sea and ashore, to develop self-confidence and endurance. Marksmanship with the M-14 rifle and 45-calibre pistol, are equally stressed, and close order drill instills the traditions of Marine Corps teamwork.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

The article in last week's newspaper certainly jogged a few memories and stirred up nostalgia among some of the residents and readers.

It stirred up a little more controversy, too, regarding the discrepancy of years concerning the early horseshows presented in Lemon Grove.

The Soroptimist Club has a program "The First Annual Horse Show and Carnival" under the auspices of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce dated Sunday, July 20, 1947. However, Mrs. Annie Moore, mother of Tom, Art, Anne, Arlene—all remembered by the kids who went to Grossmont in the 20's—read this article and called to say she had some old horseshow programs which she'd like to give to the Soroptimist Historical Library.

And what turned up among them but a program which was entitled the SEVENTH ANNUAL MISSION RANCHO HORSE SHOW and it was dated June 22nd, 1947.

The article in the newspaper brought responses from other people as well as Mrs. Moore. Attorney Charles Brown phoned from La Mesa offering some information, the Frank Bettencourts are scurrying around to gather up some more material. Bob Howell is certain there must be some old programs stuffed in trophies he has won during the past many years and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Zilker—from whom local horse shows really got their first impetus and inspiration—have offered to loan some of their valuable mementos to the library for display.

So—if you're an oldtimer—or a newcomer—drop around to your local library—If you're the former you might find an old picture of yourself among the souvenirs in the bookcases—or if you are one of our newcomers—you might find an old picture of Aunt Minnie . . . and you never knew she lived in Lemon Grove . . . in 1926, that is.

As of now, the Soroptimists has Horse Show programs for 1941, 1944, 1945, 1946, June 1947, July 1947, 1948, 1949, 1953, 1954, 1956. Anyone for 57 or in between or after Dr. Amorita Reganza 3415 Imperial Lemon Grove—469-3448

Mount Miguel's "Big O" Oscar Chavez scored 35 points last Friday evening to earn himself a new Miguel scoring record. Miguel winning the game 87-54 over Santana ran their string to ten straight league victories, giving them a three game advantage over Monte Vista.

Oscar starting slow, picked up only five points in the first period. He then jumped to 9 in the second, seven in the third and raced to 14 in the final period. Mike Ela, the younger brother of the record holder, fed Chavez the ball all evening.
